CHICKERING & SONS,
PIANOFORTES.

THE subscribers take pleasure in informing the public that they have been appointed Sole Agents for these Celebrated Instruments for the State of Rhode Island, and they would invite special notice to their intention of offering for sale at their NEW WAREROOMS a larger and more complete stock of Grands, Uprights and Squares, made by this Celebrated Firm, than has previously been exhibited in this city.

The subscribers have been conscious of the extraordinary merits and sterling qualities of the CHICKERING PIANOS for many years. This has resulted from a large experience in the sale of Pianos, many of which were from the best makers in the country and a careful observation of the various points of excellence attained by each particular maker, together with the opportunities afforded from their close connection with the Musical World, of learning the most unanimous opinions of the greatest artists in favor of the Chickering Piano, and finally, upon witnessing the last and crowning triumph at the recent Paris Exposition over all the most celebrated makers in the world. The peculiar points of superiority to be found in the Chickering Pianos have been so frequently and minutely retailed by the Press that we do not consider it necessary in the Card to comment farther upon them. We shall keep in connection with the above, a choice assortment of PIANOS from good and reliable makers at a lower price.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

1000 LOTS
IN THE
CITY OF RALEIGH,
WEST VIRGINIA,
TO BE GIVEN AWAY,

This beautiful city is in Raleigh Co., W. Va., near the Chesapeake and Ohio R. R. It is growing rapidly, and its natural advantages will soon make it one of the largest cities in the State. Lots in Chicago and many other Western cities, which a few years ago were nearly worthless, are now worth many thousand dollars. We expect to see the same rise in the value of property in Raleigh.

Our reasons for giving away Lots, is that we own a great deal of property in the city and its vicinity, and we desire to draw to our lands a part of the stream of population from the Eastern and Middle States, which is pouring into this part of West Virginia, along the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio R. R. Of the thousand persons who receive lots from us, some will doubtless settle in the city, while all will be interested to use their influence in our favor and aid us in selling lands near the city. By thus giving away part of our property we expect to greatly increase the value of the remainder.

The fees for the acknowledgment of a deed amount to $1.50, and the stamp required is 50c. Each applicant must, therefore, inclose Two Dollars for these necessary expenses, and he will receive by return mail a Warranted Deed for one full lot; or, the Deed will be sent by express, to be paid for on delivery. In this case the person receiving it must pay the expressage.

An early application will be necessary, as the thousand lots will soon be exhausted. Write your name and address plainly.

Address JAS. R. STRONG,
Room 20. 23 William St., New York,

Brainerd's Rock.

In Berkshire, where two mountains lift
Their urns to cloud and sun,
Two streams—from each a crystal gift—
Are blended into one.

And there the hill-slopes yield them up
Unto the lowlands' care,
Kneeling to drink a parting cup,
And breathe a parting prayer.

Close by a giant boulder rears
Its gray and furrowed face,
A wanderer of primeval years
For some lost, rocky race.

Four lives ago around its throne,
O'er many an odorous rood
Foot-deep in amber spine and cone,
A hemlock forest stood.

Around the rock, in jeweled ring,
The Stockbridge Indians built
Their fires, when impulses of spring
Were felt by spawn and milt.

And David Brainerd thither came,
Through pathways dim and wild,
To preach the Everlasting Name
Unto the forest child.

The pale Apostle of the race
Whose wildness could not part
God's image from one shadowy face,
His love from one dark heart.

And from the rock, when stars were pale,
And fishing toils were done,
He told the sweet, pathetic tale
Of Christ, the Only Son.

Strange scene! The fires, the faces round
Upturned the words to hear,
The savage shadows on the ground,
Each leaning on a spear:—

The light in Brainerd's lifted eye,
The rock half-hid in shade,
Type of the rock of Ages high,
On which his feet were stayed:—

The gloom within the hemlock boughs
As of the endless night,
A new light on the savage brows
As of eternal light.

Strange midnight scene! Perhaps it lies
Within the Book above,
And angels turn to it their eyes
That only turn to love.

For by the brooks no hemlocks now
Drop amber spines and cones;
Dust lies on the Apostle's brow
And o'er the Indians' bones.

Only the great rock's mighty will
Has conquered death and dust,
As if to keep the memory still
Of Brainerd's toil and trust.

BOTH SEXES, SINGLE OR MARRIED.

DR. L. DIX'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,

No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., is so arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the only entrance to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that on no account can any person hesitate applying at his office.

DR. DIX

boldly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted, except by Quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients) that he is the only regular graduate physician advertising in Boston.

SIXTEEN YEARS

engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to Strangers and Travelers.

To avoid and escape imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, more numerous in Boston than other large cities.

DR. L. DIX

proudly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, attained through so long experience, practice and observation.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!

be not robbed and add to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of

FOREIGN AND NATIVE QUACKS,

who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and less as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by through false certificates and references, and recommendations of their medicines by THE DEAD, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitutionally injured for life.

QUACK NOSTRUM MAKERS,

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon MERCURY, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specific, Antidote, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is trumpeted in various ways throughout the land; but, alas! nothing is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, there are those among them who will perjure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "usual fee" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and uselessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

DR. L. DIX'S

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY, April 27, 1869.

Spanish Affairs.

The recent action of our Government, in authorizing Admiral Hoff, of the South Atlantic Squadron, in case the Spanish authorities should refuse to release the American brig Mary Lowell, and to give up the two passengers taken from an American vessel, to commence hostilities at once, will meet the approbation of all Americans, either in this country or abroad, who feel proud of the honor of their flag.

Parties who leave this country, for Cuba, with hostile intention, do so on their own responsibility, and if caught, must suffer the penalty without expecting this Government to protect them. But, when a vessel, belonging to a neutral country is pounced upon, and seized, regardless of the laws of nations, it is time that the Government should take some decisive steps to prevent a repetition of the same.

President Grant's two months of administration has shown to the world, that he will not allow the rights of American citizens to be violated by any nation, much less a government, that is now tottering on the brink of ruin. All citizens in this country approve the measures adopted by the President in this case. For while it shows to Spain that we are not to be trifled with, it proves to the world that, although eager for peace, Grant is first to resent an insult to our starry banner. However, we hope the present difficulties will be settled without recourse to arms.

All Quiet on the Potomac.

We are reminded once more of the days of McClellan, when the army was supposed to be on the way to Richmond. First came the rumor that the army was in motion and an advance was to be made at once. The whole country was told to look out for a bloody battle. The next day the report was corrected and we were assured that all was quiet on the Potomac. And so it was. Recently we have been told that a bloody battle was to be fought between North Carolina and Rhode Island in the persons of their Senatorial representatives, Abbott & Sprague. The telegraph and the press have sounded the note of warning and we have been led to expect a fight. Late accounts said that Abbott was 'ready' and Sprague was 'prepared.' Then of course there was nothing to hinder. Both were contending for their country and for notoriety, especially for notoriety. And each was rapidly gaining what he sought.

But, as in days of yore we are doomed to disappointment. A telegram of last evening says:

"The Abbott Sprague unpleasantness is reconciled, Messrs. Sumner and Pool having secured explanations mutually satisfactory."

Now that is just as natural as life. There was a little "unpleasantness" in the days referred to, and there was a slight misunderstanding now. There was then no want of preparation for a fight, and so there has been none in our time. There was much talk then, the same as now. But there was no battle. There is to be none now. Mr. Sprague came home to his peaceful and quiet plantations, and Mr. Abbott subsides into his old insignificence. All is quiet.

We are glad there was no duel. Suppose it had been fought and one or the other of the great lights of our time had been snuffed out; what then? Who would have regulated the finances? Who would have maintained the truth of history? Who would have been able to 'manage' Rhode Island at the next election? We shudder as we think of the consequences and sincerely thank Messrs. Sumner and Poole that they interposed and satisfied the beligerents.

The farce is ended. All is once more quiet on the Potomac.

An Incident of Seven Years.

A tale is told here of a soldier in the Eleventh Maine, who was wounded in the leg while making a charge under direction of General Neglee. Finding that he could not get off the field, and feeling well assured that he should be captured, he took his money, his watch, which was a present, and an ambrotype of his sister, and buried them where he lay. He afterwards marked a stump beside him with his bayonet, in such a manner that he would know it again. He was taken; lacking proper care he was sick in prison, and for six years, after his exchange. At last, however, about four months ago, he came, in company with his sister, to look for the treasure. The spot had grown over with young pines, and everything had changed. As he was about to give up the search he accidentally stumbled over an old musket, and taking it up recognized it as his own. He then began digging around every old stump in the vicinity, and at last found his watch; but the money and ambrotype were decayed and almost wasted away. The wonderful part of the story is that the watch at once started on the record of time when wound up.—Taunton Gazette.

While Judge Archer, of Marshall, Ind., was removing some boxes from a shelf, one day this week, a mouse jumped out of one of them and into the mouth of the Judge, and started directly down his throat. The Judge, unlike John Chinaman, did not relish the taste, and, after several hawks, succeeded, despite the efforts of the mouse, in getting him out of his throat into his mouth but was rather slow in getting hold of the "little devil," and he made another attempt to get down the Judge's throat, but was again unsuccessful. Whether the mouse was trying to commit suicide, or whether he wanted to "view the inner man," we have no way of ascertaining, but we are assured that he was successful in scaring the Judge considerably.

Plaster Cove, whence weather reports are often dated, is a small scotch settlement on Cape Breton, the eastern terminus of the Western Union Company's telegraph line, where a connection is made with the Newfoundland Company's wire, which joins to the Atlantic Cable at Heart's Content.

Rev. J. B. Gould, a Methodist clergyman, formerly pastor of the St. Paul's M. E. church of Fall River, afterward located at Providence, and now stationed in Bangor, has been appointed Consul at Cork.

In Liverpool, New York, a few days since, a little boy and girl, son and daughter of David Quickel, were playing near the hog pen, and among other things attempted to set fire to some rubbish, which they only succeeded in partially igniting. With a view to facilitate matters, the little boy went into the hog pen to get some straw, of which there was a considerable quantity, and, it seems, carried some of the fire into the enclosure with him on his pantaloons. The pen closed with a spring or trap door, which could not be opened from the inside, and the fire communicating with the straw soon spread around the helpless boy, who was unable to escape from his confinement. Before he could obtain help he was burned to death. Dr. Quickel, the father, who came to the rescue of his son, was so badly burned, in his frantic efforts, that the scalp of his head was literally pealed off as well as the skin of both hands. At last accounts he was lying in a critical condition. The girl escaped uninjured.

A mysterious tragedy is causing a great sensation in the neighborhood of the Rue de Tournon, Paris. A loud detonation was recently heard proceeding from the apartment of Commandant Thevel, at the barracks of the Guarde de Paris. On the door being forced open that officer was found lying on his bed lifeless, having discharged a pistol into the region of his heart. Near him was standing a lady dressed in her underclothing only, and who proved to be the wife of a person of high family residing in the neighborhood. The deceased officer was between forty and fifty years of age, and possessed of considerable property.—An investigation is going on, but the affair is still enveloped in great obscurity. The lady, who is aged about thirty, had been acquainted with the Commandant for about ten months.

Some time last summer a daughter of Eli Martin of Middletown, Conn., missed a gold watch and chain, two gold breast pins, a bracelet, silver spoons etc., and supposed some persons had stolen them. Two prominent clairvoyants were consulted, who said they had been stolen, and each gave a like description of the thief. It was not thought best, however, to make an arrest on what a clairvoyant might say, so the articles were given up as lost. About a week ago Mr. Martin pulled off some ragged plastering in one of the rooms in his house, and discovered an umbrella inside the wall, which he got out and found all the missing articles in it. It seems that Mrs. Martin in an insane freak, placed the jewelry into the umbrella and then put the umbrella between the walls from the garret. She afterwards committed suicide by jumping into the Connecticut river.

Two fashionably dressed gentlemen, accompanied by two more stunning ladies, recently patronized one of the first resturants in Paris for a supper which taxed the whole resources of the establishment, regardless of expense. Supper finished, the ladies were seen to their carriage with a politeness that excelled the courtly days of Versailles. The gentlemen returned, called for the vulgar bill, and received it on perfumed satin paper and on a silver salver, held by the proprietor, in a span new pair of Jouvin's best kids. Each gentleman drew from his pocket a six chamber revolver, announced that they had made all their arrangements to die, and in that place, but found they had not the courage when the moment came.—'Therefore, as they had no money, they politely requested the proprietor to do them the favor of shooting them.'

A little apologue in one of the Boston papers relates how a worldly merchant of that neighborhood missed valuable goods and watched the most faithful appearing clerk in his store, with the idea that he was "a deep one." He thought he had him, too, one night when he had concealed himself in the store, and this youth was the last one in it, but changed his mind when he beheld the good youth read his Bible and pray aloud for the amendment of an ill-behaved brother clerk. And the next day he increased this youth's salary $300 a year and turned off the other fellow.

"CONSCIENCE MONEY."—The Secretary of the Peace Jubilee Association, last week, received the sum of fifty cents, as "conscience money," from a young man named Smith. It seems that Smith falsely represented himself as a member of the chorus, and by that means obtained a libreto of the music to be performed at the festival, for which act his conscience forced him to make the proper restitution. In refunding the money he stated that he was led to commit the act by the evil counsels of some of his friends.

The flood at Hartford last week was the most serious in its effects which has visited the city since 1854. The damage is estimated at $50,000. The City Missionary, accompanied by some of the city officials, made a tour through the flooded district Friday in a boat, and distributed a considerable quantity of food to the poor families living there. The distribution was generally made through the second story windows.

The hotels in Boston are already receiving numerous applications from all parts of the country for accommodations in June, in anticipation of attending the national peace jubilee.

Efforts are being made by the executive committee to secure the attendance of Straus' famous band from Vienna.

The body of Miss Sophia A. Howe, who mysteriously disappeared from her home in Springfield last January, was found this afternoon in the United States water shops' pond. The body has no marks of violence, and it is believed that she committed suicide.

John Priest died in Attleborough on Sunday morning at the age of 72 years. His wife died the same evening at the age of 80. They did not leave any known relative.

THE NEW BELL.—The new bell for the Congregational church, arrived to-day and will be at once put in position.

PERSONAL.—H. D. Maxfield formerly of the Perry House in this city has made arrangements to open a place for summer resort at Vue de L'Eau.

MISS IDA LEWIS.—This well known person is to be initiated into the good Templars next week. She has had some experience in cold water already and will take to it readily.

THE NEW YORK MAILS.—The New York mails were carried by again this morning. Is it not about time this farce was played out? Somebody is to blame, and the blunder is too serious to be repeated many times.

SUNDAY TRAVEL.—There were 110 passengers from Boston to Newport by the Sunday night train, to take passage by boat for New York. On the trip from New York the same evening the steamer brought fifty passengers.

MUSIC ON THE BOATS.—The New York Steamer has on board a fine band of music. Last evening the whole city was serenaded, and the lively airs coming from the boat floated on the breeze to every open door and window. It was continued until the departure of the boat for the great city.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—At a regular meeting of Eureka Lodge No. 12 I. O. of G. T. held last evening, the following officers were elected:

W. C. T.—George F. Northup.
W. V. T.—Celia M. Barker.
W. S.—Benj W. Pearce.
W. F. S.—Sylvester Brownell.
T.—Benj. B. Cornell.
Chap.—Wm. C. Tennant.
M.—Joseph Langley.
I. G.—Annie Howard.
S.—John A. Hatfield.
P. W. C. T.—T. C. Munford.

THE ODD FELLOWS.—This order celebrated its fiftieth anniversary in America, yesterday, throughout the country. There were great gatherings of the Lodges in Boston and other cities, and the brethren seem to have had a good time generally. Members from this city went down to the city of notions, and celebrated after the most improved manner. We are glad to know that Odd Fellowship is enjoying great prosperity throughout the country, as it is a most excellent order and has accomplished much good.

The Newport Lodge was honored by the presence of the oldest Odd Fellow in the world, Benjamin Downing, aged 87. He has been a member of the Order 61 years.

DISGRACEFUL OCCURRENCE.—The Press says two young bloods, neither of whom has scarce reached his majority, got into a dispute, Saturday evening, about a woman of bad repute, and to settle the difficulty agreed to fight a duel,—with fists. They accordingly repaired to the bathing beach, with about twenty of like kidney as themselves, where a ring was formed, each of the seconds being armed with a pistol to enforce fair play. The fight lasted about three minutes, when the challenging party being satisfied, or some say a foul blow being struck, the fight was declared ended, and the parties returned to the city to have their wounds dressed. As both the parties are known, and make no secret of their participation in the fight, it would be no difficult matter to mete out to them that punishment they deserve, and prevent such occurrences in future.

Good Hearing is requisite in every department of life, for the rapid interchange of our thoughts, ideas and wants, and its loss or impairment is a sad misfortune, felt at every step, and seriously interferes with our usefulness and success in all relations of life. It is a "mildew" to fond hopes and high aspirations, and debars talent and genius from reaping their legitimate reward. CATARRH, too, that fell destroyer, in its deadly assaults and fearful ravages, spares neither sex or age. The young, the gifted, the beautiful, and the strong, alike remain under its malign influence as readily as the old, the feeble and the debilitated. Its very appearance stamps the seal of death upon the brow of the unfortunate sufferer, and, unless promptly arrested, dooms him or her to an early grave. Dr. Campbell makes the treatment of Deafness and Catarrh, a special study, treating them exclusively, and as he can radically cure these diseases, those suffering should not fail to consult him, at the Perry House.

THE MAILS.—The non-arrival of the New York mail this morning, the mail for New Bedford being received, caused much comment among the citizens. Postmaster Coggeshall places the error entirely with the New York Post Office, the tag mark on the bag being Newport. There are three outgoing mails now to New York, closing daily at 7½ a. m., and 2½ p. m., by railroad, and 7½ p. m., by steamer. Three incoming and opened, at 6 a. m., by steamer, 12 m., and 7 1-2 p. m., by railroad. Thus, in each week, thirty-six mail bags pass to and from New York for the Post Office in this this city: quite sufficient without a special mail on Sunday night, by steamer. There are sent and received each week to and from various points for our Post Office one hundred and sixty-eight bags of mail matter. Within four years there was but one mail to and from New York, to and from Providence, and to and from Fall River each day, once a week to and from New Shoreham, and twice a week to and from Jamestown and the Narragansett section, a total then of about forty-four bags of mail matter each week.

Supreme Court.

This Court within and for this county met this morning at its adjourned session, Judge Potter present and presiding. The docket was called and no jury trials being ready, the jurors were dismissed until to-morrow morning, at nine o'clock. Motions and petitions to the Court will occupy the session to-day.

P. C. Shanahan.

The late P. C. Shanahan, whose mortal remains so large and respectable a number of persons followed to their last resting place, yesterday, was a man of uncommon ability, having raised himself by his own exertions to an enviable position as a man of business and enterprise. Endowed with a warm and generous heart, he was the friend of all, and many will call to mind his deeds of kindness to themselves and to others. His love for our beautiful city, although only his adopted home, was manifested in his many works of improvement, which will continue monuments to his memory. Coming to Newport a few years since he promptly realized its advantages over many other places where he had resided in prosecuting his labors as a railroad contractor, and made up his mind to do what he could to improve his adopted home. The beautiful building on Washington Square known as the Perry House and the adjoining one, the Opera House, stand boldly evidencing the good taste and generosity of the man. Nor were these to be the only proofs of his generosity toward Newport. He had in contemplation the purchase and improvement of one of the wharves at the Point, and the erection of a warehouse for the storage of merchandise and the transaction of a mercantile business. Had he lived, within this present year, we should have seen the work begun and completed, this, too, without asking any son of Newport to aid or join him in the enterprise.—It might not have been profitable to him, but he felt that it might be to others. He was a man who looked to the good of others rather than to his own, and one of the happiest of his ideas was that he was able to earn money that he might expend it in Newport. No man within the past eight years has done so much for the city of Newport, as he whose untimely fate so many mourn. In the prime of life, with every good prospect for the future, he was suddenly called away. We cannot call him back, but as fellow citizens and friends we can cherish his memory and sympathize with his bereaved family, whom God has so severely afflicted. J. R. S., Jr.

A Card.

Among the letters published by Mr. Sprague in the Globe newspaper, is the following:

NEWPORT, R. I., April 1, 1869.

Dear Sir:—Your friends think you are doing a good work.

Oblige me with your speech or speeches when printed, which they should be, and I will take it as a great favor.

With respect faithfully,

DUNCAN C. PELL.

That letter was written and sent to Mr. Sprague immediately after his speech on the the political corruption of the times,—being aware that the Senator was full of knowledge on that subject, I really hoped he would make more disclosures.

Of course I could not write a letter approving of his attack on Rhode Island soldiers, among whom my oldest son was one, or on the fair fame of men who have been among the very greatest of benefactors to Rhode Island. DUNCAN C. PELL.

New Bedford.

IMPORTATION.—During the past seven days, five whalers and three merchantmen have arrived at this port, the latter with full cargoes. The importations of oil and bone during the time mentioned are 1763 lbs.

PAID.—The New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, has paid, through their agent Capt. F. L. Gilman, of this city, $7500, the amount insured upon the life of the late Rev. Wheelock Craig.

A LARGE WOMAN.—Mrs Lucinda Sharp, who died Sunday of dropsy, aged 80 years, was probably the largest person in the city. Her height was 6 feet 1 inch, and weight about 450 pounds. Her coffin is 6 feet 7 inches long inside, 2 feet 5 inches wide, and 1 foot 7 inches deep. Aunt Lucinda was liked by all who knew her. Her heart was proportionately as large as her body.

LIGHTNING.—There was a smart thunder-shower at half-past 12 Sunday morning. The lightning struck a shed connected with the house of Rev. Barnabas Collins on Ashland street, tipped off an imperfect lightning rod, passed into the cellar, killed a pig, destroyed a rain-water cistern, and ploughed a furrow in the ground as far as the main water-pipe in the street. The flag-stones of the sidewalk were broken into small chips. A locust tree was twisted into fragments.

Taunton.

Albert Field, of the firm of A. Field & Sons of this city, died at his residence Sunday, at the age of seventy four years, from illness resulting from injuries received several months since. Mr. Field was the oldest, most extensive and most successful tack manufacturer in the United States, having been engaged in the business for fifty years.

Silas Dean, a member of the common council, a highly esteemed member of the Masonic fraternity, and a most worthy and valued citizen, died Monday morning, aged 74 years. The funeral services of both will take place Wednesday afternoon.

An Absolute Safeguard.

INVALIDS, broken down in health and spirits by Chronic Dyspepsia, or suffering from the terrible exhaustion which follows the attacks of acute disease, the testimony of thousands who have been raised as by a miracle from a similar state of prostration by HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, is a sure guarantee that by the same means you too may be strengthened and restored. But to those who stand in peril of epidemics, to all who, by reason of exposure, privations, and uncongenial climate or unhealthy pursuits, may at any moment be stricken down, this paragraph is most particularly and emphatically addressed. You who are thus situated, are proffered an absolute safeguard against the danger that menaces you. Tone and regulate the system with this harmless medicinal stimulant and Alterative, and you will be forearmed against the maladies whose seeds float around you in the air [illegible]. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are not only a standard Tonic and Alterative throughout the United States, but they are accredited by the certificates of the most distinguished citizens of the Union, to the people of all other lands. In Canada, Australia and the West Indies, they are gradually taking the place of all other stomachics, whether native or foreign, and as surely as truth is progressive and demonstration overthrows doubt, they will eventually supersede every other Invigorant and Restorative now employed in medicinal practice.

A TREATISE ON CATARRH,

By JAMES P. CAMPBELL, M. D.,

OF 335 FOURTH AVENUE, New York City,

Who will be at the PERRY HOUSE, Newport, on MONDAY, April 19th, and will remain until SATURDAY, May 15th, 1869.

Its Prevalence,—Deleterious Effects on the General Health,—Where Located,—Diseases which it Induces,—Erroneous Methods of Treatment,—Fatal Result of its Neglect.

Perhaps there is no disease with which the human family is afflicted, so deleterious in its effects, so loathsome to the sufferer and so fatal in its consequences, and yet so neglected, as CATARRH. The danger of disregarding the first and earlier symptoms of this disease is realized by few, and still less are they aware of the many diseases entailed upon them, and of which Catarrh, and Catarrh alone, is the exciting cause. Foremost among them stands Consumption, the destroyer of millions, while prevalent to a most alarming extent is Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Aphonia, Asthma, and other dangerous affections of the Throat and Chest. And so little is known of this disease, and such slight attention is paid to it by medical practitioners, (either in its treatment or the investigation of its causes) that these results need not be a matter of surprise. I have no hesitation in saying, and I am prepared to demonstrate, that tens of thousands of those who now are sleeping in the cold embrace of death, might, had they had proper and appropriate treatment for Catarrh in the earlier stages of their disease, have now been living, and in the enjoyment of perfect and sound health. Yet no one seems to realize this appalling truth, and every day only adds fresh victims to swell the already [illegible] list. No effort is made by the legion of sufferers, or by their medical advisers to obtain a more extensive knowledge of the causes which tend to induce this formidable malady, or the means by which its fatal ravages may be arrested and removed. A [illegible] of apathy seems to pervade all classes on this momentous subject, and if a little attention [illegible] up the [illegible] to have life desperated and loathsome [illegible] upon as incurable. And this opinion gains strength from the fact that [illegible] but dorsed, frequently expressed by [illegible] the sufferer has unburdened [illegible] to whom he turns for relief, [illegible] Hearing such an opinion from [illegible] the patient loses hope [illegible] slowly but surely away, or, if suffered to [illegible] years, is always firmly of the belief that [illegible] can never be cured. As a consequence of this [illegible] inclination or inability of medical men to prescribe any effective treatment, a large number of "specific" preparations, under the name of [illegible] have sprung up like mushrooms into existence, the inventors of which get rich by their sale to a credulous public, without affording them one particle of permanent relief. Most of these "specifics" have for their base nitrate of silver or corrosive sublimate, and their use in a large number of cases is highly deleterious and positively injurious. I have been consulted by thousands of persons who [illegible] them, and never yet met with one who had in any way been benefitted by their use, but found a number to have lost their sense of smell, and some their taste, by the use of these harsh medicines. But worst of all, physicians often advise the use of these same "snuffs." As I am a regular physician myself, and formerly a general practitioner, I trust nothing may be construed in what I have said as a disrespect to the profession. Knowing as well as I do how [illegible] often their services are not sufficiently appreciated, any such intention is farthest from my thoughts, [illegible] in a matter like this, when the health [illegible] lives of thousands are concerned, and [illegible] impossible to avoid, but imperatively [illegible] criticise, even if somewhat severely.

From the above, it will be seen that nothing, thus far, that would exert a beneficial or [illegible] influence in the treatment of Catarrh has been attempted, and as a consequence, there are large numbers who, at the present moment, firmly believe in the impossibility of its being Cured. [illegible] would say that they must bear in mind that the present is emphatically an age of improvement, advancement and progress, especially in the medical and surgical profession, and that every day, by the skillful use of modern appliances, and the careful exhibition of newly discovered remedial agents, in the hands of discriminating and experienced practitioners, such results are daily produced, as in the days of our grand-parents, or even the younger days of our parents, would have been considered not only impracticable, but absolutely impossible to perform. Why, then, I ask, may not more have been learned of the causes that tend to develop Catarrh, and of the necessary means by which it can be effectually and permanently removed?

Investigation has demonstrated the causes of Catarrh to be various. Typhoid and scarlet fever, measles, and other febrile and eruptive diseases, tend to induce it in a large number of cases, but probably by far the most prolific source is a "neglected cold," by which the glands and membranes have been irritated and inflamed, and the consequence of which is the secretion of the discharge which is sometimes profusely eliminated from the nostrils or hawked up from the throat, and sometimes both. Sometimes the discharge from the throat is a thick, viscid and tenacious yellow mucous, often tinged with blood, and again in the form of an incrustation or scab, which the patient describes as coming from between the upper and back portion of the nostrils, (the posterior nares) and the throat, and often requires the most persistent efforts for its dislodgement. This latter form is more frequent in the morning, and is caused by the warmth of the head resting on the pillow during sleep, by which the watery portion of the discharge is evaporated and driven off.

The mucus membrane of the nose is the seat of Catarrh in its commencement, but in order to convey to the reader a correct idea of the manner in which this disease acts so deleteriously on the general system and health, and involves so many important organs, a slight description of this membrane is necessary.

"The gastro-pulmonary mucus membrane commences at the edge of the lips and nostrils, proceeds through the nose and mouth to the throat, from whence it is continued throughout the whole length of the alimentary canal, to the termination of the intestines, and also along the windpipe and its various divisions, as far as the air-cells of the lungs, to which it affords a lining. From the nose the membrane extends through the tear passage, until under the name of conjunctiva, it is spread over the fore-part of the eyelids.

Other offsets from the nose line the frontal maxillary, ethmoidal, sphenoidal sinuses, (small cavities situated in the bones bearing the same name.) A prolongation extends through the Eustachian tubes to the [illegible] passage, and the tympanum, or middle ear."

A large majority of those who suffer from Catarrh in its earlier stages, are not aware of the fact, and labor under the impression that they are but experiencing the effects of a cold. To those the following description will prove of service:

When Catarrh first makes its appearance there is a feeling of dryness and heat in the nose, with at times frequent inclination to sneeze and obstructed respiration, and a stopping up of the nasal passages, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, and not unfrequently both. Shortly after, a thin, watery and acrid discharge appears. A little longer and the discharge becomes thick and yellow, and sometimes streaked with blood. This is a marked stage in the disease, not only causing great annoyance to the sufferer, but highly dangerous in its effects. (Many at this stage now commence discharging immense "clumps" from the nose, sometimes the length of the fore-finger.) If the disease does not now receive a prompt remedial treatment, the discharge becomes purulent, thick and of a yellow-green color, accompanied in the majority of cases with an odor most disgustingly offensive. The very breath of the patient becomes so tainted that his society is unendurable, and he is an object of loathing and disgust to himself and associates. There is a continuous dropping of mucus into the throat, causing constant hawking and expectoration, the sense of smell and taste are gradually lost, strange and distressing noises in the ears making their appearance, almost driving the sufferer distracted, the hearing gradually fails, until in many cases total deafness is induced; a severe pain or feeling of pressure is constantly felt over the eyes, as soon as the frontal sinuses are affected, and pains often mistaken for "Neuralgia," are felt through the head and face. Sleep at times is an impossibility, from the constant accumulation of the "dropping in the throat," the patient being thereby almost strangled, and in the morning, in some cases, the amount of matter expectorated is immense, that [illegible] A coated tongue and [illegible] in the mouth on rising is also frequent. [illegible] day, a drowsy, listless feeling [illegible] to exertion of effort.— [illegible] there is no [illegible] spirits. A depressed [illegible]

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscess, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billous complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. G. C. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover St., Boston, Wholesale agents. For sale by all druggists. jan1—ly eu

TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 26.

THE SPRAGUE CORRESPONDENCE.

To-day's Globe contains twenty more columns of letters addressed to Senator Sprague about his speech, and a third instalment is to appear to-morrow. Among them is one from David Wilder of Boston, who addresses him as a fellow-believer in Spiritualism.

THE SPRAGUE-ABBOT DIFFICULTY.

Senators Morton, Sherman and Pool are to reconcile the unpleasantness between Senators Abbott and Sprague. When the last named gentleman was asked to-day if Senator Nye had resented being compared to a mastiff, he replied: "No, he had too much good sense to admit that he was thus referred to."

THE WHITE HOUSE CROWDED WITH VISITORS.

The White House has been crowded with visitors to day, many of them anxious to gather up the fragments left after the feast of offices.

HORACE GREELEY DECLINES HIS OFFICE.

Horace Greeley came here this morning to consult with Secretary Cox about accepting the position offered him as Commissioner of the Pacific railroads, and concluded to decline.

THE PATENT OFFICE.

Commissioner Fisher of Ohio assumed control of the Patent Office to-day, and made a brief address to the clerks, informing them that he should not make any immediate changes, but intended to render the office efficient.

MR. ASHLEY IN SELF DEFENCE.

James M. Ashley, familiarly called here Impeacher Ashley, publishes a card denying that he has ever belonged to any ring, or that he ever made a dollar because of any vote he gave in Congress. His friends believed him.

GEN. LEE AT BALTIMORE.

Robert E. Lee will remain during the present week at the residence of Samuel H. Tagart, in Baltimore, and many of his devoted friends here will visit him there.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CELEBRATION.

The Roman Catholics here are celebrating with unusual interest what is known as the forty hours' devotion, which was commenced yesterday and will be concluded to-morrow. Several Jesuit priests recently banished from Spain have been warmly welcomed here.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY.

President Grant, while at Laurel, Md., on Saturday as a guest of his brother-in-law, Dr. Sharpe, now Marshal of this District, visited the mills and the public schools. The youngest Master Grant will probably pass the summer with his Uncle and Aunt Sharpe at Laurel.

THE NEW INDIAN COMMISSIONER.

Gen. Parker assumed control of the Bureau of Indian Affairs at noon to-day. The clerks waited on him, and he told them that at present he should devote himself to perfecting the arrangements for harmonizing the Indians, but that when he could find leisure he proposed to reorganize the clerical force of the Bureau.

MILITARY TRIAL OF A PAYMASTER'S CLERK.

Col. Thomas J. Barr, formerly of Massachusetts and now of the Bureau of Military Justice, has returned from Vicksburg, Miss., where he has successfully conducted a case on behalf of the Government involving the power of military authority. A Paymaster's clerk was charged with the alteration of vouchers, and it was claimed that he should be tried by civil authorities, while Col. Barr took the ground that he was amenable to trial by court martial exclusively, as the laws providing for the appointment of clerks to Paymasters in the army evidently comprehended them as persons in the military service. Judge Hill sustained the Colonel, deciding that a Paymaster's clerk is an officer or person engaged in a particular department of the military service, and that when he voluntarily engages in such service he renders himself liable to the laws, rules and regulations connected therewith, and becomes amenable to the military tribunals for any violation thereof. This is the first case of the kind adjudicated, and the decision is, therefore, of considerable importance, especially to civilians engaged in the military service in clerical or other capacities.

THE SPRAGUE AND ABBOTT COMPROMISE.

The town is talking and laughing over the amicable arrangement between Senator Sprague and Abbott. The general opinion is that Sprague has shown a disposition to be fair, and given Abbott an excuse for coming off. The people are curious to know who the "puppy" mentioned in Sprague's speech is, and the mischief-makers are at work appropriating the epithet to other Senators. Two or three republican Senators helped to close up the quarrel. The correspondence is published in the evening papers and causes much amusement.

AN AMERICAN MERCHANTMAN FIRED INTO AND BOARDED.

NEW YORK, April 26.

A private letter says that, on the 1st instant, the schooner Ella M. Pennell, of Machias, Me., while in British waters off the Great Bahama Bank, was fired at and brought to by a Spanish war vessel, and her papers and cargo examined. Finding the Pennell had nothing contraband on board, the Spaniards permitted her to proceed upon her voyage without further molestation.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 26.

This afternoon an accident occured at Power's new building, on State st., by the giving way of a scaffold upon which three men, named John Van Vouten, Michael Bragley and William Jackson, were working, precipitating them to the basement, a distance of forty feet. Van Vouten was injured internally, and died in two hours. Jackson had his pelvis bone broken and Bragley had a thigh broken. A man named John Carson, who was at work in the basement, was struck by a brick, and it is thought that he will die. Jackson's injuries will also, it is thought, prove fatal.

FROM WASHINGTON.

—o—

WASHINGTON, April 26.

This morning Senator Sumner and Sherman called upon Senator Sprague in order to suggest a basis of settlement of the difficulty existing between himself and Senator Abbott. In the course of their conversation Senator Poole joined the Senators above named, and produced a letter from Senator Abbott to Senator Sprague, of which the following is a copy:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April, 26th.

To Hon. William Sprague:

Dear Sir: On the 22d inst. in the United States Senate you uttered the following language:

"Mr. President—In answer to the tirade of the Senator from Nevada, and the Senator from North Carolina, I am reminded of a little illustration: In my travels from the the centre here, into the rural districts, to the Woods and farm of the surrounding neighborhood, chance at one time brought me to a farm house. I found on looking up a large mastiff and a mongrel puppy-dog. The little dog moved at me with rapidity from behind, bit at my heels, and frightened at his temerity ran howling away followed by his larger companion. The Senate will observe that the mongrel whining puppy, encouraged by the mastiff, and emboldened to attack from the shadow of his backer, ran rapidly away alarmed at his temerity, while the overgrown cur followed with both ears lopped and his tail between his legs to a place of safety beside his companion."

This language has been meant in part to be applied to me. I am not aware that I gave any occasion in my remarks for you to wish to be offensive or insulting in reply. I therefore deem it proper to ask that you state distinctly whether you intended to apply any of the above language to myself.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
JOSEPH C. ABBOTT.

In reply to this communication of Senator Abbott, Senator Sprague wrote a reply which was placed in the hands of Senator Sumner, who together with Senators Sherman and Poole, proceeded to the residence of Senator Abbott with authority to deliver the letter upon Abbott's acceding to certain conditions as the nature of a withdrawal of certain language applied to Senator Sprague and involving a reply from Senator Abbott to the letter of Senator Sprague, which reply was to be satisfactory to Senators Sumner and Sherman. The following reply was suggested by Senator Sumner and accepted by Senator Abbott.

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 26.

To Hon. Joseph C. Abbott, U.S. Senator:

Sir—I have no hesitation in at once replying to your note of this morning just received, that the paragraph of my speech referred to was written and in manuscript some time before it was delivered in the Senate, and before you participated in the debate, and, therefore was not intended to apply to you.

Your obedient servant,
WM. SPRAGUE.

The following letter in response to the above, closed the correspondence in a manner satisfactory to all concerned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.

To Hon. Wm. Sprague:

Sir—I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this date, which shows I have misconceived your language. My own allusion to your after words in the Senate was founded on this misconception, and I ask you to consider it unsaid.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
JOSEPH C. ABBOTT.

It may be stated that on Friday or Saturday Senator Anthony called upon Senator Abbott, and begged him to desist contemplating violence toward Mr. Sprague.

NEW YORK, April 26.

There is great rejoicing at the Cuban headquarters here to day over the announcement of the recognition of Cuban beligerent rights by Mexico. Arrangements are being perfected for the immediate transportation of large quantities of arms, ammunition and cannon to Vera Cruz from this port; and the Gulf of Mexico will soon bristle with the flags of Cuban patriot privateers who will prey upon Spanish commerce. Several fast sailing schooners will leave here for Mexican ports where they will hoist the Cuban flag and assist the cause of free Cuba to the best of their ability.

PITTSFIELD, N. H., April 26.

The ceremony of breaking the first ground on the Suncook Valley Railroad took place here to-day. The people turned out en masse and, headed by the Pittsfield Cornet Band marched to the line of the road with shovels and picks, and after speeches by Hon. Benj. Emerson, and John Berry, Esq. broke ground on the road.

MADRID, April 23.

The conscription authorized by law has been completed throughout Spain. There was no rioting or disorder except at Avila, a small town about 50 miles from Madrid, where the conscription was postponed for a time on account of the opposition of the people.

FRANKLIN MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.

WOOD'S BUILDING, No. 12 South Main, Cor. College Street, Providence.

INSURES FIRST-CLASS DWELLINGS AND CONTENTS ONLY.

AMOUNT AT RISK, $4,500,000.

The object of a Mutual Company is to furnish Insurance to its policy holders at the ACTUAL COST, and the main thing to be considered is, what conditions are most favorable to make the actual cost as near nominal as possible. This Company will insure nothing but Dwellings and Household Furniture, which experience has shown to be the SAFEST OF ALL INSURANCE RISKS, thus putting the liability of losses at the lowest possible standard. The premium charged is sufficient to cover all probable losses and expenses during the term for which the policies are issued, thus avoiding the necessity of assessments, which are always distasteful and expensive. The insured receive all the profits,—every dollar, after deducting the necessary expenses, being invested for their benefit, and returned to them at the expiration of their policies, thus offering one of the safest and cheapest systems of insurance.

HORACE WATERS.

TESTIMONIALS.

The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet Music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for years), of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal.

COMPLAINT.

Important Certificate.

Having been afflicted with chronic disease of the digestive organs, (described by physicians as enlargement of the liver and inflammation of the stomach,) for more than ten years, and suffered what words can never describe, without relief from the most celebrated medical skill that could be consulted, I was induced by the physician who last attended me to try Dodd's Nervine and Invigorator. He had witnessed its effects, he said, in his own practice, and could recommend it in the highest terms. I had about lost faith in everything; but I followed his advice, procured the medicine. The effect inspired me with hope. I continued its use, and still improved; following it up, I grew stronger and stronger, and suffered less and less from my troubles. This for some months—until I was relieved and needed it no longer. Dodd's Nervine restored me to complete and sound health and no language is able to express the gratitude I feel at being well once more. I am thoroughly cured of the horrible suffering that had made ten years of my life most wretched. No one can conceive my joy who has not experienced a like recovery. E. B. LIBBY,
